

When your commission makes their decision on June 2nd, I hope that you will put the interest of the public ahead of private, special interest. I would strongly urge your commission to retain the current ownership rules and not permit further consolidation which will only result in less diversity. The American public deserves better than that.

Thanks for your consideration.